

Faculty Position Openings in Aesthetics

Applications are solicited for two faculty positions in aesthetics in the School of Philosophy, Wuhan University. The ranks are open, dependent on the qualifications and experiences of the applicants who can be hired either as junior or senior professor and receive corresponding salaries and benefits as other regular faculty members. 2/2 teaching load (undergraduate and graduate). Ph.D. required. Language: Chinese. Applicants are expected to be able to teach in the following fields: Chinese aesthetics, Western aesthetics, or aesthetics of art.

Application materials can be either in Chinese or English. Applications must include a letter of application, curriculum vitae, writing sample, at least two recommendation letters. Applications will be received until the positions are filled. Electronic applications are preferred, and may be sent to Ms. Cheng Yao-e at yaoec@whu.edu.cn with "Job Application" in the subject line. All inquiries may be sent to her, and she can also be reached at (027) 6875-2861.

Wuhan University is located in the City of Wuhan, the capital of Hubei Province, China. The School of Philosophy at Wuhan University was founded in 1922, and the scholarly reputation of its faculty is recognized nationally and internationally. The Division of Aesthetics of the School has five faculty members and four of them are full professors. The aesthetics faculty has established their reputation in the history of Chinese aesthetics and general aesthetics.